

Our Code of Conduct

We view our own operation as being an extension to your internal procedures. With this in mind we consistently maintain a professional approach. We know the importance of upholding your reputation and accordingly, any activities undertaken on your behalf will be handled in such a way that safeguards your company image.

We are always conscious of the implications regarding the Data Protection Act 1998 and are voluntarily registered with the Information Commissioner's Office. Click to view the complete Data Protection Act 1998.

We are a full member of the Credit Services Association (Membership No: 478) and as such, uphold their Code of Practice. In addition, we adhere to the OFT Debt Collection Guidance.